PMBOK 8 on one page: principles, processes and tailoring

SIPA Privacy 2 group · PMBOK 8 summary

Central idea: principles guide decisions; domains and Focus Areas help locate the work; tailoring adjusts how it is carried out [5].

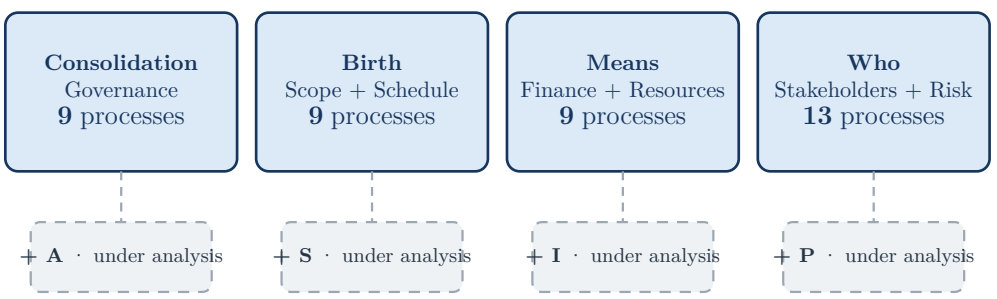

Authors: Filipe Alves de Sousa and members of the Colégio Reciclagem 1 group
Course: IT Project Management (GPTI) – PPCA/CIC/UnB
Code: 3p2 / 3R31

Five operations on processes: add · modify · remove · blend · align. Three objects of tailoring: life cycle and development approach · processes · engagement [5].

Reading notice: the four concentrations and the A, S, I, and P labels are the analytical grouping of this work*; the seven domains and their 40 processes are from PMBOK 8 [5].*

Domain	IN	PL	EX	MC	CL	Total
Governance	1	2	3	2	1	9
Scope	0	4	0	2	0	6
Schedule	0	2	0	1	0	3
Finance	0	3	0	1	0	4
Stakeholders	1	2	2	2	0	7
Resources	0	2	2	1	0	5
Risk	0	4	1	1	0	6
Total	2	19	8	10	1	40

Legend: IN Initiating · PL Planning · EX Executing · MC Monitoring and Controlling · CL Closing. Process count ≠ duration or importance of an area. Identify Stakeholders is in Initiating (Guide Figure 2-32).

In practice and limits

PMBOK 8 does not mention digital twins. Hybrid approaches are frequent in practice [4, 6]; tailoring is therefore the axis of this summary.
